Dear Stan:

Thank you for your letter of February 15.

I believe a meeting with you and business leaders in the Miami area would prove most beneficial. I regret, however, that I will be out of town on April 18. I wish there was some way I could reschedule my plans but, unfortunately, I am unable to do so. Nonetheless, I would be happy to host a luncheon discussion if another date can be arranged. As an alternative, I could contact a key business leader who would be able to host such a function or perhaps I could arrange something through the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce. Please let me know your preference.

Again, I'm sorry I'll miss you on the 18th; however, [redacted] and I look forward to seeing you and Pat at The Homestead this Spring.

STAT

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Frank Berman
President
